

Ainsley Sadibu Kemokai

August 28, 1944 - November 12, 2019

Ainsley Sadibu Kemokai was born on August 28, 1944 to Suleiman and Naffie Vawah Kemokai in Malema Soro-Gbema Chiefdom in Pujehun District, Sierra Leone. He was the 4th born out of 13 children. As a young boy he attended St. Paul's Secondary School where his instructors marveled at his brilliance. While attending school, he met and married Gladys Kaikai-Kemokai.

He was the patriarch of the Kemokai family and continued to live bi-continental until he returned to the United States of America in the early 1990's. Our Beloved returned as a Christian. He was so captivated by the Lord Jesus Christ and his new found faith, that he made it his life's mission to introduce his children and extended family members to His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Indeed, he succeeded in introducing all of his children to Jesus. He would count it as his greatest accomplishment. In his last days he lived a life of prayer and praise, and he has entered into the glorious rest.

He was predeceased by his parents and siblings Aciatu Vawah Kemokai, Aminata Vawah Kemokai and Sidie Vawah Kemokai. He is survived by his children Maima Kemokai, Naffie Kemokai-Drayton, Tiangay Kemokai, Musu Kemokai, Gladys Kemokai-Harris, Lucia Kemokai, Ainsley Kemokai, and Sidie Kemokai; his 17 grandchildren; his 6 great grandchildren; and his siblings Aciatu Vawah Kemokai, Aminata Vawah Kemokai and Sidie Vawah Kemokai living Hawa Jay Vawah Kemokai, Fadiru Vawah Kemokai, Takiyu Vawah
