

Alberteen Johnson

May 17, 1925 - February 7, 2023

Alberteen "Tina" Johnson of New Brunswick, NJ died February 10, 2023. She was born to Lillie Mae Douse Bush and Otis Bush on May 17, 1925, in Aiken, South Carolina. After attaining her education in South Carolina, Alberteen met and married Clarence Johnson. After living in Detroit, Michigan for a short time, the Johnson family moved to New Brunswick, New Jersey. Four children were born from this union, Dorothy Johnson Wheeler, Justine Baugham, Clarice Jackson and Douglas Johnson.

Alberteen worked in New Brunswick as an Assistant Manager at Food Fair Supermarket and eventually at Nat West Bank. She retired from the bank after working for 25 years. She loved children and went to work part-time at the Tiny Tots Day Care at Ebenezer Baptist Church, New Brunswick, where she was a member for over 70 years. She served on the Trustee Ministry for many years and was a Mother of the Church. She loved her church and pastors dearly.

Alberteen prepared dinner every Sunday for many years for family and friends. After church, her house would be buzzing with people eating, laughing and talking. She would stay up all night cooking her Sunday dinners.

Alberteen leaves a beautiful legacy of love to all who knew her. She is survived by three children, Justin, Clarice and Douglas; sister, Zoe Stallings; grandchildren, Tina, Charles, Jr., Crystal, Jesse, Kimberly, Wendi, Gene, Misty, Caron, Joy and Staci; fifteen great grandchildren; daughters in Christ Connie and Crystal and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
