

Amy M Gonzales

April 7, 1939 - June 13, 2023

Amy Marie Gonzales, 84, of Trenton New Jersey, passed away on June 13th, 2023 at Robert Wood Johnson New Brunswick Medical Center. She was Born April 7, 1939, to John Henry Queen, and Arena Queen.

An entrepreneur her whole life, Amy was a critical part of the Trenton community with her clothing store she established over 50 years ago. Marie's Shop has always been a staple of the community and as Amy always wanted will continue to be a large part of the Gonzales family for the community going forward. She was devoted to remaining in the city, to provide Trentonians and beyond with something they could call theirs.

Amy also spent over 50 years extending her business to Columbus and Englishtown Flea markets, where everyone knew to look for "Marie."

Amy was a devoted mom, grandmother, aunt, and more. Never hesitant to put her family first or to offer a helping hand, she truly was a blessing from God and will forever be remembered.

"Amy Marie Gonzales was preceded in death by her brothers and sisters Edward Queen, Sarah Queen-Moore, Johnny Queen, Anna Queen, James Queen, Mary Queen-Linton, Clara Queen-Richardson, Franklin D. Queen & Sidney Queen ; Granddaughter Ramona Marie Gonzales"

"Amy is survived by her children, Ramona, Victoria, and Ramon; her sister Eleanor Queen-Tirado; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, cousins, and loving family members who will miss her dearly."
