“ Hi my love ...it's my birthday today and I'm 53 yrs young... Went through a lot today. Had to get some back injections and tomorrow I have to go for medical clearance for my upcoming surgery April 4th. I've been thinking about you all day and wishing that you were here. I know all my birthday. You always tried to make it as special for me. I remember when you was trying to give me a party but I was so exhausted from work. I couldn't. You know have people over but just spending time with you and have you there and around and knowing how much you loved me and I loved you. That's what mattered to me. That was all what counts... You have left this world before your time because we should have been together and working things out, I was waiting for you to do what you had to do but somehow it almost makes me at peace. Now that know that you're not hurting anymore, you're not struggling anymore. You know nothing can bother you. Nothing can hurt you and you're safe now. Just always know that I'm always your Maria. I'm always going to be your Maria regardless who I am with who I end up marrying if that's even in the cards for me. You're always in my heart and that's where you'll stay. I love you, Andre 💕❤️💕😭 You will always be with me and I'll be with you for always and forever. You let me know how much you still and love me and showed me before you left this earth. We always together
