

Anita Louise McKay

November 13, 1942 - May 23, 2017

Anita Louise McKay was born November 13, 1942 in Trenton, New Jersey to James and Izola John McKay. She was educated in the Trenton Public School System. Growing up, she was a very "Shinny mini." As the youngest in her family, her mother and siblings were very protective of her. She adored her family and enjoyed her grandparents.

Anita worked for many years as a housekeeper and later became a certified childcare provider. She worked as a private duty nursing assistant. She loved to have fun. She spent time pouring into her grandchildren and great grandchildren lives; and attended as many of their birthday parties as she could. She was sweet and funny. Her best tasking dish was macaroni salad. It was so good! She loved squirrel nuts and shared them with her friends.

Anita was predeceased by two siblings, Shirley Hazel and Chester McKay; aunt, Lucinus Balaam; grandmother Bessie Balaam and the love of her life for thirty years, Ervin Scarborn.

She leaves to cherish wonderful memories: three children, Anita, Iris and Anthony McKay; grandchildren, Taquion, Haley, Darryl, Khalif, Sharletta, Shanie, Shaherra, Karemma, Leninya and Blessing McKay; nieces, Brenda Hastie, Kim McKay Langley and Courtney McKay; three special childhood friends, Emma Kelly, Patricia White and Caroll Roberts; a host of cousins, other beloved relatives and friends.
