

Beatrice Roberta Jones

October 29, 1908 - March 1, 2014

Beatrice Roberta Adams Jones was born to the late Estella and Samuel Adams in Eldorado, Arkansas, on October 29, 1908. She was the first girl of 17 brothers and sisters. Mother Jones died March 1, 2014, at Waters Edge Healthcare Center and Rehabilitation Center at the age of 105.

Mother Jones moved with her parents at the age of five to Tulsa, Oklahoma, where she was brought up. She later met and married Elder F.J. Jones of Fardyce, Arkansas.

On January 3, 1926, she decided to accept Christ as her personal savior. She loved the Lord. Mother Jones was devout and steadfast in her walk with God.

In 1943 she moved to Trenton, where she became a member of the Church of God In Christ, under the leadership of the late Elder F. McKey, the late Bishop Esau Courtney and now Elder Esau Courtney, Jr., and remained a devoted member for seventy-one years.

Mother Jones served long and well in various positions in the church. On the state level, she was head of the Nurse's Department and in the local church served on the Mother's Board, Pastor's Aide, Senior Choir, as a Sunday School teacher and was dedicated to her pastor and devoted to her position as church secretary for over thirty years.

Mother Jones worked for the Trenton Psychiatric Hospital and retired after many years of service as a Human Service Technician.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her nieces, Dorothy (Charles) Dyett of Baltimore, MD and Bertola McDavis of Detroit, MI; nephews, Charles (Dorothy) Thompson of Fremont, CA, Robert (Ernestine) Thompson of Oakland, CA, great and grand nieces and nephews, her Courtney Temple family, host of saints and friends.
