Bernice Cecilia (Carter) Mbadugha was born on November 18, 1946 to Eliza Jane Carter (nee Powell) and Joseph Lorenzo Carter. She passed away peacefully at home surrounded by her family, on June 23, 2019.

Bernice was born and raised in New Brunswick and enjoyed a childhood on John Street. When faced with a career change, she embarked upon a successful tenure at Merrill Lynch Financial Services, rising to the rank of VP of Special Investment Services. Before retirement, she had the opportunity to achieve her childhood aspiration to teach, becoming a dedicated math and english teacher in middle and high schools.

A prolific and talented writer, Bernice earned her Master's of Arts in English from Middlebury Breadloaf School of English in 2013. Her work has been featured in numerous poetry anthologies and publications.

She was predeceased by her mother Eliza Jane Carter; father Joseph Lorenzo Carter; brothers Joseph and Vincent Carter, and former husband Robert O. Mbadugha.

“ Bernice was a cool, down to earth lady. She was a fellow Scorpio. I'm in shock and still saddened by the news of her passing. I'm glad to have met her. May she rest in peace as she lived her life in peace.
