

Betty Ann Black

January 25, 1951 - November 25, 2021

Betty Ann Black was born January 25, 1951, in Somerville, NJ, to the late Booker T. and Leona Tukes. She was raised in the "Hobbstown" section of Bridgewater, NJ. Betty entered into eternal rest, Thursday, November 25, 2021, at the age of 70.

Betty was affectionately called Betty Boop, Shortie, or simply Bettie, by her loved ones and friends.

Betty received her education attending the Bridgewater School District, graduating in 1970.

Betty married Theodore Black Sr. in July of 1971, and from their union three beautiful children were born.

Betty was a diligent and dedicated worker at Baker & Taylor in Somerville, NJ for 20 years.

Betty enjoyed being a caretaker for not only others but also her plants. Boy did she love her plants! Each one being accented with their own watering bulb. She would be willing to share them, followed up by a, "You better take care of them".

Betty was known for her little voice but big heart. A gentle giant to say the least. She enjoyed visiting family and looked forward to outings with her sisters, aka The Golden Girls, usually heading to Walmart to just look around, laugh and reminisce. If ever you were called a "stupid jerk" or were told, "you get on my nerves", in more ways than one, it meant, "I Love You".

Betty was predeceased by her husband Theodore Black Sr.; her parents Booker T. Sr. & Leona Tukes; six brothers, Booker T. Tukes Jr., Henry Tukes Sr., William Tootes, Jimmy Tootes, Tommy Tootes, Emanuel Brantley; two sisters, Lizzie Tukes and Rosie Takes; A special friend Preston Johnson.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory, her daughter Daniel Black; her sons, Theodore Black Jr. (Kelly) and Michael Black (Betsy); nine grandchildren, Xavier Black, Isaiah Black, Elijah Black, Kaitlyn A. Squires-Black, Keynote N. Black, Joel Black, Jahmier Black, Javon Black and Jamari Black; her furry grand-pup Chubby; four sisters, Gladys Mills, Helen Williams (Lit), Priscilla Johnson (Sherman) and Ronda Tukes; one brother Thomas Tukes (Lutherine); one sister-in-law Phyllis Tukes; her Goddaughter Sherri L. Hampton and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
