Beverly Van, 71, of North Brunswick, NJ died February 9, 2026. Viewing Only was held at Anderson Funeral Service, New Brunswick on Friday, February 20, 2026.

Beverly Van (Schenck) was born on November 4, 1954, in New Brunswick, NJ to Phoebe Ann and Richard Schenck Sr. She was raised in Jamesburg NJ and was educated in the Monroe/Jamesburg school system. She was known for her feistiness and her big smile. She departed this life at home on February 9, 2026.

“Bae” or “Beaver” as she was affectionately known, would give you the world, after you bend on a knee with a few pretty pleases. She was the “fun” aunt and dedicated mother to Jennelle, and devoted nana to Demetria and Aleks. She loved coffee ice cream and was an avid watcher of crime shows. She also loved Denzel Washington and Indris Elba calling them good looking men, when they would be on TV.

Beverly worked in several warehouses throughout her life and in 2014 she retired from WB Mason.

Beverly is preceded in death by her Parents Phoebe Ann and Richard, her siblings Grace, Richard, Phillip, Victoria and Robert; husband Harvey Van; nephew Halime Jackson;

Beverly leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Jennelle Humbert (Jonathan); 2 grandchildren, Demetria and Aleksander; 4 sisters, Barbara
