“Wow! I am beyond shocked. You're gone and I never knew until now, but I'm not surprised because you've always had a quiet strength. You never complained even when you're in pain. Now you're in heaven, having a reunion with your mom and dad. Rest in peace my beautiful sister, you will always be the queen in my heart.

“ It might be time to say goodbye, but memories linger. I remember Carol as a brilliant, ambitious, humble spirited, and highly focused at a very young age perhaps preteen. What stands out to me most is the love and devotion she had for her little sister Kim. My daughter and Kim was best friends pre-kindergarten, they were inseparable and spent a lot of time together due to Carol's dedication. She assisted them with baking in their easy bake oven, playing store and other games. She also watched them play with their dolls named barbie, Cher, Farrah fawcett and the list goes on. Those who touch our hearts stay in our lives forever. May she rest in peace, in Jesus name 🙏

Wow, to Kim and the rest of the HARRIS family. My deepest condolences to you. I remember growing up the fun times we had playing in the neighborhood. Caral and I was close back then also, you grow up when you go your separate ways it's still hard to say goodbye to a lifelong friend once again, my condolences to the family

“ The memories I have as a child she would babysit Kim and walk me home always made sure I was good, every Saturday I would go with the family to the laundromat. Carol will always tease me cuz I would take one french fry and put ketchup on one at a time. She just thought that was so funny... I will never forget R.I.P ❤️🙏
