“ I just heard about the passing of Cherilus. I have fond memories of him when he worked in the MacMillan building at Princeton University. He would always say "hello my friend" with a deep sincerity. I'm saddened that I now have to say rest in peace my friend. My sincere condolences to his family and friends. Heaven gets another great one way too soon.

“ *To the Mezadieu family, Cherilus was truly a treasure. We gave him the Nickname "Bear".
Every morning I would say to him "Good morning, Bear"! His reply would be "Good morning, my friend"! I still wish that every time I go around the corner at work, (where I use to see him), he would be there to say Hello! "Bear you are greatly missed. To Cherilus's daughter, you were the apple of his eye. He always spoke about you and how proud he was of you. He couldn't wait to show us your beautiful wedding pictures. May God give you peace and comfort during your time of mourning. Sincerely, Michelle Warren-Williams*
