

Cynthia Harris

February 10, 1949 - October 3, 2022

On Monday, October 3, 2022, Cynthia Harris, a beloved mother and grandmother passed away at seventy-three years old. Born to Arthur and Helen Smith, Cynthia grew up in Englewood, New Jersey. At the tender age of eleven, she met the love of her life, Ronald Harris, Sr. The two went on to spend the rest of their lives together and married in Louisiana in 1968. They were married for forty-seven years and traveled the world together.

Cynthia was a local phenomenon. After running the daycare at her local church, Cynthia attended night classes at Kean University to obtain a teaching certification. From there, she began building her legacy: Early Learning Pre-School. Early Learning was Cynthia's pride and joy. She was able to exercise both her love of children and her love of "running things".

Cynthia was best known for her cheerful spirit, fearless determination and festive parties. She is survived by her two loving sons, Ron Jr. and Michael; their wives, Barbara and Erin; seven grandchildren, Aleisha, Najah, Markell, Tyla, Michael Jr., Emerson and Lexi; and one great-granddaughter, Kennedy.
