“Darryl & Darnell came into my life approximately 40 years ago. A “Mommy Jam” brought them to drill team practice with her daughter one day. They occasionally would hang out with my nephew but preferred to hang out around the squad, so every chance I got I put them to work. They attended banquets, parades, competitions, cookouts and traveled with the team. They became family and called my sister Joyce & I auntie. I’ll always remember them doing something with a hat, clothes their glasses so I could tell them apart and I’d still mix them up and oh how they’d both laugh at me and at the same time say, “It’s alright Aunt Tutta. They were inseparable and will always be inseparable.

May you rest peacefully,
