

Doris Jean King

June 1, 1948 - September 29, 2021

Doris Jean King, was born in Drew, Mississippi, on June 1, 1948. She departed for glory on Wednesday, September 29, 2021.

Doris moved to New Brunswick, New Jersey as a child. She graduated from New Brunswick High School in 1966. After finishing high school, she began her professional career. Most notably, Doris was employed as a cook at Rutgers University, for 32 years until her retirement. She was known as a hardworking and caring employee.

Doris's greatest pride and joy was being a loving mother to her only child, her daughter Angela and a loving grandmother to her grandchildren and great granddaughter.

Doris had a strong relationship with God. She was a member of Mt. Zion Ministries Family Worship Church in New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Doris will be remembered for her energetic, jovial and caring personality. She carried herself with grace, sophistication and a beautiful smile. She was a phenomenal woman after God's own heart. Well done, Doris.

Doris was predeceased by her parents, Mary Eliza Ratliff and Robert Ratliff, and sisters, Pauline Ratliff and Maryann Fowler.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter Angela King (Tony); Three grandchildren, Stephen Gordon, Qaid King, Kamecia Starks, of New Brunswick, New Jersey. One great-grandchild, Tatum Michels of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, her sisters, Odessa Ross of Atlanta, Georgia, Barbara Ratliff of South Brunswick, New Jersey, Loralisa Ratliff of Edison, New Jersey and Geraldine Ratliff of North Brunswick, New Jersey. Brothers, James Neal(Debbie) of New Brunswick, New Jersey, Barry Ratliff of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Paul Ratliff(Bulesa) of Willingboro, New Jersey and a host of, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
