

Earvin "BoBo" Parker

October 15, 1950 - October 26, 2014

Earvin "BoBo" Parker was born in Sandford, Florida, to the late Earvin Rackley and Anna Haws Parker. He departed this life on October 26, 2014, at Capital Health System at Fuld.

At a young age, Earvin's parents relocated to Trenton, NJ, where he would live out the rest of his days. He was educated in the Trenton Public School system until he fell ill. Although he was ill, he was blessed with a natural talent to work with his hands to do home improvement. He lived his life doing exactly what he enjoyed--making life comfortable for the people he loved.

Earvin was predeceased by his parents, Earvin Rackley and Anna Haws Parker; one sister, Martha A. Parker-Miller; two brothers, Willie James Parker and Carey Sykes and one niece, Lasheta Parker.

He leaves to rejoice in his memory, his daughter, Malieca Barnes; five grandchildren, Basir, Yasin and Dameerah Baker and Ayannah and My'Kayla Barnes, all of Atlantic City; two brothers, Purvis and Douglas Parker (Tonya Rowel); one sister, Christine Tripp, all of Trenton, NJ; one dear aunt Lucy Mae Spady of Hightstown, NJ; a special niece, Carla Parker of Atlanta, GA; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and an extended family, Mr. and Mrs. James of Sandford, Florida.
