“ Pastor Jordon was my Mothers dearest friend all their lives. She done many wonderful deeds for our family that wil last through out eternity. God blessed her to Pastor Saint Marys for years and blessed me to run a revival on her watch. I will certainly miss her kind heart and loving smile. She and her husband were a blessed team to the Ministry.

God Bless the family.

Lovingly Submitted, Rev. Cecil Simmons, Jr.

“ Special condolence to the family of Pastor {Emeritus} Elizabeth Jordan.

She was a very special servant of God. A great friend to my family, over 50+ years and a personal mentor to me. Rev. Jordan, loved the people of God; mostly she supported young ministers, evangelist and missionary, in the vineyard. She gave spiriual guidance with no judgement and with sincere love, shared of her experiences on her divine journey. Amen. I have been grateful to know such a woman of God, since I was under 10 years old~{now, i am 66 years old}. Praise the Lord.

Grace and peace to the family at this hour of sadness. The memories of her joyous love, will replace the sting of loss, and change it all into happiness. For 'Mother' Jordan has achieved the goal, she preached and taught of ~ that, "Salvation is the only way, to see Jesus...!" Amen. Rest In Peace, dear One. We are happy for You.

Sincerely, Evangelist Lillie B. Foy & Family ~Somerset, N.J
