

Enos Ochieng Obado

December 3, 1939 - March 12, 2025

Enos Ochieng Obado, 85, of New Brunswick, NJ died March 12, 2025. Visitation Services were held Saturday, March 29, 2025, at Anderson Funeral Service, 201 Sandford Street, New Brunswick, NJ.

If you ever heard laughter echoing across a room, chances were Enos was at the center of it. He lived with a heart wide open, finding joy in the simplest moments and sharing it generously with everyone around him. Whether he was cracking a joke, dancing to his favorite music, or reminding us all that “That’s how life is,” he had a way of making life feel lighter.

Born in Omboga village in Karachuonyo, Homa Bay County in 1939. Enos was a man of wisdom and warmth. He believed in the power of education, not just as a means of success but as a gift to expand the mind and uplift others. He worked hard, loved harder, and never hesitated to put family first.

To his children, he was a guiding light—teaching them resilience, kindness, and the importance of finding laughter even in difficult times. To his friends, he was a loyal companion, always ready with a story or a dance move to brighten the day.

His legacy is not just in the lessons he taught but in the love he gave so freely. Though he may no longer walk beside us, his laughter, wisdom, and kindness live on in every life he touched.

A celebration of Enos's life will take place at Anderson Funeral Services on 3/29/25. In his honor, we invite you to dance, tell a joke, and embrace life with the same joy he did. Because, as he always reminded us, that's just "how life is."
