“ I remember my aunt Ethel (Coot) when I was young as slow to speak, religious in thoughts and actions. She always had her bible and verse. She really loved her children, and kept them well groomed and dressed. I was always jealous of Shirley's dresses. I didn't see her much later on in her life. The last memory of her was about three years ago she was happy to see me, my sister Christine, and my cousin Bobby. She was standing at the stove steaming beef patties and onions together. Boy, the house smelled great. So much so my first stop after returning home to Florida was the supermarket to buy liver and onions. She was always talking about God. I can picture her now in heaven smiling, humming, and cooking away. My thoughts and prayers go out to everyone left behind, God will get us thru it. Your loving cousin Lowreen Gibson (Nap)
