“ Deeply saddened by the passing of our friend and family Ethline “Sissy” Anglin Humphrey. There are so many memories... Sissy is part of a long line of women warriors. Our shared history go back to the early 70's in the City of New Brunswick when we were neighbors, she and my family...the Wallens. We all connected with the Anglins of New Brunswick because of love and a Jamaican ancestry. May the creator and the angels above carry her as she travels this new journey. Condolences to her husband, daughter Jenny and the rest of her tribe ❤️🌹

“ Aunty Sissy had a way of making everyone feel like family, and I was no exception. Though I was her niece-in-law, she embraced me fully as her own. She listened without judgment, protected me without hesitation, and loved me with a sincerity that I will carry in my heart forever.

Her words were often comical but they were delivered with her unique humor that could lift even the heaviest of moments, yet behind every joke was a deep well of warmth. She nurtured with love in everything she did. Whether she was offering advice, sharing a laugh, or simply sitting beside you, she made you feel safe, supported, and seen.

Aunty Sissy's presence was a comfort, her spirit a blessing. She gave so much of herself to others, not out of obligation, but because caring was simply who she was. I will forever cherish the way she stood by me, encouraged me, and loved me without conditions.

Her kindness lives on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know her. Though we will miss her dearly, the love she shared remains a lasting gift one that will continue to guide and warm us in the days ahead.

May her soul rest in peace and her memory continue to surround us with grace.

*Love you forever!

“ It is with a heart full of profound gratitude and deep reflection that I compose this message, acknowledging the immense and irreplaceable impact you have had on my life and on the entire Anglin family. Our shared history is a rich tapestry, interwoven with countless cherished memories that will forever hold a precious place in our hearts.

Our journey together, like all meaningful relationships, encompassed a spectrum of experiences—from moments of exuberant joy and camaraderie to occasional disagreements. Yet, through every triumph and tribulation, our bond remained resilient and enduring, always finding a way to reconnect and strengthen, no matter the circumstance.

I am especially compelled to recall your extraordinary generosity and unwavering care during our formative years in East Orange and Newark. Your steadfast commitment to ensuring that my children and I were consistently provided for, particularly regarding our daily sustenance, was a foundational kindness that speaks volumes of your selfless spirit and compassion. These acts of profound support laid a groundwork of security we will never forget.

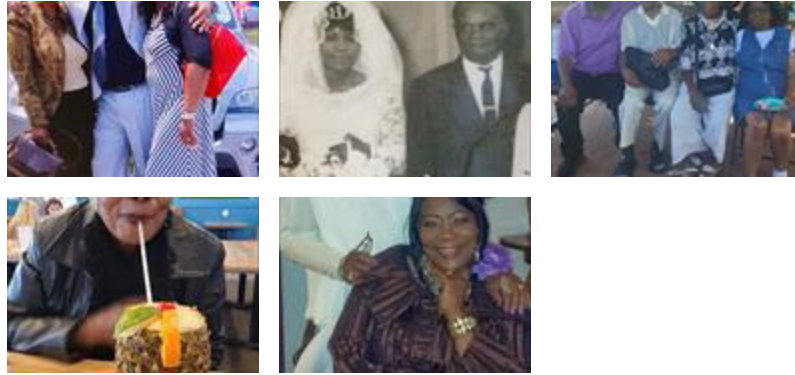

Your vibrant spirit and infectious zest for life were truly remarkable. You possessed an unparalleled ability to illuminate any gathering, often making a memorable entrance and remaining until the very last echoes of joy had faded. You were, without question, the animating force of every occasion you graced.

Beyond your outward exuberance, you exhibited an admirable inner fortitude. Even when confronted with personal adversities, you carried your burdens with such quiet grace and strength that, unless you chose to confide, your struggles remained unseen by others. This resilience and protective nature were truly defining aspects of your character.

To fully articulate the depth of our experiences and the myriad ways you enriched our lives would require volumes far exceeding the confines of this message. Your legacy is vast and profoundly personal to all who knew you.

Aunt Sissy, may you now find eternal peace.
