

Eula Ward

September 10, 1924 - March 28, 2019

Eula Mae Ward, daughter of the late Cleaves and Luddie Wells was born September 10th, 1924 in Trenton, NJ and transitioned this life on March 28th, 2019. She was educated in the Mercer County Public School systems. After graduating from high school, Eula later met and married the late John A. Ward on July 27th, 1945; affectionately known as his “Baby Cakes”. Eula joined Galilee Baptist Church in 1939 under the late Rev. S.M. Bagley and later joined Friendship Baptist Church in 1955 under the late Rev. E.A. Davis; as one of the original founding members. She was dedicated and sang in the choir for 57 years. Eula played the organ and was a member of the Usher Board. For many years, Eula was a domestic worker until she became gainfully employed by the State of New Jersey until her retirement in October 1998. In her spare time, she often took pride in helping others. She loved spending time and entertaining with family and friends. Eula was very witty with a spunky personality and a sense of humor. She was a fun loving person known for her famous saying “Make No Mistake Baby Cake”.

Eula was predeceased in death by her husband (John); two step-daughters, Lillie Florence of Inglewood, CA and Rose Marie Freeman of McCrory, AR. She leaves to cherish her memory, two brother-in-law's, Thomas Moore and Vesta Lee Ward (Barbara); two great nephews, Anthony Thompson

(Ellen), Darryl Thompson (Deborah); two loving God-daughters, Wanda Johnson (Michael), Anita

Dockery (Ellen); special devoted cousins, Willie Bob Wells, Faye Thomas and June Thomas; a special niece, Gloria Thompson (Oliver); a special friend Jennifer Brown; and a devoted and loving cousin Donna

Parker; and a host of family and friends.
