

Florence Williams

January 3, 1955 - October 8, 2018

Florence Alverta Prilo Williams, lovingly known as “Flo”, was born on January 3, 1955 in Trenton, NJ to Mary and Curtis Prilo Sr. She departed this life on October 8, 2018. Florence worked as a crossing guide for the City of Trenton for most of her life.

Florence resided in Trenton, all of her life and attended Trenton Public schools. She enjoyed spending time with her family especially, her mother. Going out to eat was one of her favorite things to do. Florence was very outgoing, and her personality and warm smile could brighten up any room. She enjoyed talking and would strike up a conversation with total strangers. Florence was the Diva of Diva’s, she kept up with everyone old or young-she was a mother to the young and a friend to the older.

Florence is predeceased by her father Curtis Prilo Sr., husband, Marion Williams, 3 brothers, Leon Prilo, Nathaniel Prilo, Maurice Prilo and son, Paul Prilo.

Florence leaves to cherish her loving memory, her mother, Mary Prilo; one daughter, Charee Prilo; son, Aaron Prilo; one grandson, Quashawn Prilo Sr.; a brother, Curtis Prilo Jr (Shelia); two sisters, Wanda Williams, Rebecca Prilo; great grandchildren, Faith, Quashawn Jr., Amanit and Miracle, with a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Florence was the very first Prilo I ever met. I met her summer of 1995 and we became friends. She was my neighbor. I met her son Paul September of that same year. Florence was a good person and was very kind to myself and my father. I will miss Florence and I know she's in a better place right now with Paul. My condolences and sympathies go to the entire Prilo Family. God bless.
