

Frederick Tyrone Alexander

April 16, 1971 - May 20, 2018

Fredrick Tyrone Alexander went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, May 20, 2018 at St. Lawrence Rehabilitation Center of Lawrenceville, NJ, with his loving and devoted wife, Tia Alexander by his side.

Fredrick, who liked to use the name Rick, was born on April 16, 1971 and was raised in Trenton, NJ, and also had lived in Pittsburgh, PA. Rick and his family moved back to Trenton, NJ, where he finished his education at Trenton Central High School. He was employed at Robert Wood Johnson Hospital, Hamilton, for fifteen years. He worked in the Environmental Service Department.

Rick enjoyed praising and talking about the goodness of the Lord wherever he was. He enjoyed traveling and watching football and basketball. He enjoyed eating, laughing and joking around, but most of all, he loved spending time with his family and church family.

Rick was predeceased by his father, Jimmy McNeil and two grandmothers, Laura Alexander and Elizabeth Riggins.

Rick is survived by his wife of twelve years, Tia Alexander; mother, Helen Alexander; stepmother, Pinky McNeil; three sisters, Nicky Alexander, Cherise Williams and Sonya Eccles; three brothers, Adris Northcutt, Joy McNeil and Shannon McNeil; son, Ronte Hodges; stepson, Jameel Baile; mother-in-law, Joyce Meadows; father-in-law, Thomas Meadows; two sisters-in-law, Angela and Danielle Meadows; two brothers-in-law, Thomas Meadows and Bruce Eccles and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
