

Georgia M. Eubanks

February 21, 2017

Georgia M. Eubanks, 87, died Feb. 21, 2017 at home in New Brunswick. She served in the Women's Army Corps and was stationed at Camp Kilmer in the late 1940's. She was a retiree of the New Brunswick Board of Education. A communicant of Holy Family Parish (formerly Sacred Heart Church), New Brunswick, she belonged to the National Commission of Black Catholics.

She was predeceased by her husband, Leo Eubanks and a brother, Oscar Rowan. Survivors include five children, Paul Blocker, Patricia Reece, and Christopher, Joseph and Cynthia Eubanks; 12 grandchildren; 3 great grandchildren and a host of relatives.

Previous Events

Calling Hour

FEB 25. 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM (ET)

Holy Family Parrish
56 Throop Ave
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Service

FEB 25. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Holy Family Parrish
56 Throop Ave
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Tribute Wall

“ Georgia M. Eubanks

September 22, 2022 at 02:41 PM

“ I am so saddened to hear about Mrs. Eubanks' passing. I hadn't seen her in many years but I remember her smile and her cheerful attitude every time I saw her...whether it was at Sacred Heart church, at Sacred Heart or St. Peter's school (I went to grammar school and high school with Patty and Cindy) or at McKinley school where she worked with my mom. My heart goes out to the entire Eubanks' family. Heaven truly has gained another angel. God bless you all.

~Margaret (Brown) Rose

Margaret - March 01, 2017 at 02:25 PM