

Harold Collins

March 28, 1959 - October 14, 2017

Harold L. Collins, 58, of Trenton, NJ, transitioned into eternal rest on October 14, 2017, peacefully with his loved one by his side. Harold was born March 28, 1959, to Harold Robinson and the late Ada Jones in Newark, New Jersey. In his early years his passion for construction started in railroad that led to building and general construction and heavy highway. Prior to working construction, he worked as a heavy-duty tow truck operator for Conti Dente Brothers. Harold was a union member of the Laborer's International Union of North America (LIUNA).

Harold had an enthusiastic sense of humor. In spite of his egotistic ways he could make anyone laugh. His magnetic personality was captivating and adults, kids, and animals gravitated towards him. As a child he would bring stray dogs home and manage every time to persuade his mother Ada to let them stay. Harold's love for animals continued into his adult life. He was a protector, worrier and a legend in his own rights. He was good people with a colossal heart that enjoyed giving to others less fortunate than himself. Harold was smart and witty at telling stories of truth and fiction. Harold had a way of convincing her to let them stay. Harold was witty at telling stories of truth and fiction and we will miss hearing them and laughing with him.

Harold was preceded in death by his mother Ada Jones and grandparents Estelle and William Solomon.

Harold is survived by his father, Pastor Harold Robinson, his loving partner of 28 years, Pamela Bryant, his son, Jarrett L. Collins, his daughter, Tiffany S. Collins, his granddaughter, Londyn A. Collins, his two sister, Pastor Dolevera Derilus and Kimberly Collins,, his nephews, Frank Hatchett III and De'Jauhn Hatchett, his nieces, Jasmine, Vivian and Amina Louis and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.
