

Hilaria L Spady

July 5, 1955 - June 27, 2018

Hilaria L. Spady, affectionately known as "Net," was born July 5, 1955 in Trenton, New Jersey to the late Hilary and Lucy Hawes Spady. She graduated from Rutgers University with a Bachelor of Science degree. In addition to her more recent work at Target, Hightstown, New Jersey, Net was a Head Start teacher for thirty-two years. Her great love for children was evident in the way she embraced all children.

Net had a good sense of humor that kept everyone laughing. She loved music and had an expansive music album collection. She was strong-minded and a true leader.

Net was predeceased by her father; brother, Andrew; and several aunts and uncles. Left to cherish precious memories: her mother, Lucy Spady of Hightstown, New Jersey; five siblings, Derrick of Virginia, Darren of Hightstown, New Jersey, Lorraine Rochelle of East Windsor, New Jersey, Jocelyn of Hamilton, New Jersey and Hilary of Hightstown, New Jersey; niece, Ciera of North Carolina; nephews, Taron Conover of Jackson, New Jersey, Michael Spearman of Georgia, Andrew Spearman of Georgia and Hilary Spearman of Ewing, New Jersey; a host of other cousins and beloved relatives, and three specialfriends, Darlene, Jackie and Tesha.

“ I remember Hilaria as a sweet, loving child when she was in my class in third grade in the Walter C. Black School. She liked to give hugs. I have never forgotten her. She helped me chose the middle name of Lynn for my daughter.

I am sorry to hear about her passing.
