“ Lyman family sending our condolences and prayers, May GOD continues to strengthen the family needs during this time. Uncle Stink will be missed, but he was well-loved and he loved his family and it showed in his deeds and works.

I'll always remember him at Lyman's family gathering, especially on Laclede Ave, reminiscing sharing stories of his Parents, Grandma Minnie, and him growing up with his sisters and brothers. Always happy to see and be with his family.

Alice, as his soul-mate you are in our prayers. I believe Uncle Stink's love for you will always be present even beyond death.

Uncle Stink, Rest In Peace., grateful to GOD for your life!

With time, may Hilbert's precious memories warm hearts and shine cheeks with cheer and laughter! He will forever live in the hearts of loved ones.
