

Ivory Joe Stanford

January 18, 1963 - January 13, 2026

Ivory Joe Stanford

Sunrise, January 18, 1963 born in Fort Gains, Georgia

Sunset January 13, 2026

Educated in the Pemberton and Trenton New Jersey School Systems.

Ivory Joe was gifted in working with electronics. It just came natural to him.

His smile was contagious, the image of his mother, Jessie Lee Stanford. Ivory Joe loved music, from the Gap Band to the Ohio Players. He played the Bass Drums and also enjoyed listening to music. .

He was a loving son, brother, uncle, cousin, friend and companion. Ivory Joe will truly be missed.

Ivory Joe has gained his wings. He is with his Mom Jessie Lee Stanford, his Dad Alex Stanford, older sister Mary Stanford, Uncles; Willie Frank Smith and Robert E. Smith.

Ivory Joe leaves behind a great great auntie Julie Lawrence, sister; Mary, Vivian, Lisa Stanford and Pat Deleon-Stanford. Brothers, Robert Stanford and James (Clara) Butler. Ivory was a great uncle to his nieces and nephews. He especially loved his furry babies including Mimi and Cuckoo. He had so many cousins and friends he met along the way. Now Ivory's journey has begun. He is in the arms of his mother, Jesus Christ and our Heavenly Father. God bless you all for sharing in our time of sorrow, especially Guy Cucinotta for your generous contribution on behalf of Mary Ann Stanford..

“ Remember, Ivory when we were kids the time we had, singing and playing instruments in our band. You played bass drums, James played bass guitar, I played the organ/piano, Patricia played the horn, and Mary, Vivian and Robert played tambourines. Wow, memories. Mommi supplied us with everything we needed. Awesome Memories.

“ Remember, when MoMMi will take you to school through the front door, only for you to walk out through the back door. LoL, oh how we would just laugh and laugh, funny and not so funny. I was a tomboy and I would follow you everywhere, exploring everywhere and everything. Wow, Memories.
