

Izona LaJune Bowling

June 5, 1934 - November 11, 2013

Izona LaJune Bowling, “usually referred to as June”, was born June 5, 1934 in Sumter, Georgia. After growing up and graduating from Sumter High School, she relocated to New Jersey where she married Ernest M. Bowling and they parented three children.

June first worked at Bonds Clothing in New Brunswick, New Jersey for approximately 10-years. She was then employed by Lockheed Electronics where she was the first African American Shop Steward for the Union. June had a very prosperous career as an engineer and retired from Lockheed in 1996. For the next 12-years, June worked as a School Crossing Guard for North Brunswick Township.

June was very active at the First Baptist Church of Lincoln Gardens. She served on the Pastor’s Aide Committee, The Hospitality Committee, and The Women’s Auxiliary.

Izona LaJune Foster went home to be with the Lord on November 5, 2013. Left to cherish her many memories are her two daughters Constance Foster and Sherrye Hawkins, a son Lamont Bowling and daughter in-law Jeana; a step-son Donald Bowling (Wife-Suzanne);
