

Jabbar Lacey Manning

March 12, 1974 - October 29, 2017

Jabbar Lacey Manning affectionately known as "Buck Shot", son of Jessie Robinson, was born on March 12, 1974 in Trenton, New Jersey. He departed this life on Sunday, October 29, 2017 at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital of New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Jabbar was educated in the Ewing and Trenton Public School System. He graduated from Trenton Central High School and later attended Morris College in Sumter, South Carolina. He was currently employed by Central Jersey Waste & Recycling, Inc.

Jabbar had such a great personality. You would never know if he was having a bad day because he always had a smile on his face. Jabbar was a excellent husband, father, brother, uncle and friend. He was an avid motorcycle rider. He was a member of the Cycle Kings Motorcycle Club, New Jersey Mother Chapter and held the position as Treasurer. Jabbar was predeceased by his grandfather, Lacey Manning; three uncles, James W. Manning, Thomas W. Manning, and Ronald L. Manning.

Left to cherish his memories is his wife, Nicole McCallum-Manning; two sons, JahQuan Jabbar Manning and Nijay Tiyon Manning; his mother, Jessie Robinson (Curtis); his grandmother, Bertha Manning; childhood father figure, Douglas Campbell, Jr.; his sister, Hasana Campbell; father-in-law, William McCallum (Mildred); one sister-in-law, Monica Owens (Corey); two nieces, Devin McCloud and Amirah Campbell; four special brother/friends, Chet Anderson, Aaron Averheart, Raymond Harris, and Robert Coleman; and a host of other beloved relatives and friends including his Cycle King family.
