“ From Vinny (The Pilot) Jordan, my heartfelt prayers to all Family and Friends. I have been in my war room of prayer everyday for all of you. My Morehouse brother, my friend I am thankful I was able to spend the time on Earth that we had. From the days of Morehouse College to when I got my first professional flying job in New Jersey. I'll always remember our lighthearted fun times and also our hours long, incredibly deep discussions on scripture and the nature of God. I enjoyed our discussions as Jamaal has an incredible mind fitting of a Morehouse Man. Love you Brother and I WILL see you again. Go with God

“ To redeem something means to buy it back, to regain possession of it. Time is a gift from God, and none of us know how much of it we are allotted. Only God knows how much time each of us has on this earth to make decisions that will impact eternity. Jamaal made a great positive impact on so many lives that cause a lot of people to reach goals and climb mountains that seem to be impossible for them. He encourage them and said, " you can make it". He had the attributes of a gentle giant of a man. Quiet, calm, caring, gentle and just a very nice young man every time I would see him. We are going to miss him, but earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal. In due time God will wipe away our tears. but for now cry family another soldier of this Jackson/Sconiers family has gone no home

“ I wasn't fortunate to know you but for the brief time that we interacted you were always positive and so full of life and just an all-around great person like you mother and father. I will cherish our brief interactions for a lifetime. My prayers go out to his family and friends.

2002, Jamaal greeting us in the door of he and E.B.s spot in Atlanta. Over these 2 decades, we watched these 2 young men, our son and "_Maal" as EB would call him, develop as Morehouse Men.....just like they told us at the Morehouse Freshman orientation. They bonded like brothers! We will forever carry a soft spot for this bright shining young man.

*We are so sorry for your loss and send you our deepest condolences.

“ Malley Mall was the best cousin you could ever ask for or be blessed with. I have always been very bias when it comes to my cousins because i feel there are no better men out there. We have lost an amazing man who's inner light shined bright as the sun. Give Mom, Eileen, and my Mommy the biggest hug and kiss we will miss you all.

Love,

Lex Lex

“ Jamaal and I celebrated many birthdays together. Our birthdays are a week apart. Many of my best birthday memories include fun times with my dear friend. He helped make my birthdays special. One year Jamaal got tickets to a Nets game and invited myself and Justin to go with him to the game for his birthday. The picture shows us celebrating Jamaals birthday at a Nets basketball game. The three of us were always goofballs together. I will cherish these memories. Love you Jamaal. With love and comfort. Dara Reeves and family.
