

James Herbert Bell Jr.

January 12, 1957 - June 16, 2023

James Herbert Bell, Jr., 66, of Franklin Township, NJ died June 16, 2023. Services are pending.

Tribute Wall

LA

“ James "Wesley Snipes" as I called you and you were very quiet and always cool and unbothered. I never saw you upset and you accepted your life as it was granted and given to you. I only would hope that I was as easy going as you for you didn't even have a gray hair on your head and mine is all gray. I will miss you and your kind heart and spirit and will keep on eye and a prayer over Derrick as he grieves the lost of his last immediate family member and dear brother. We loved you but God took you because of His love and care for you. Rest well my friend and I'll see you in the morning.

Linda Atkins - June 30, 2023 at 09:50 PM

LJ

“ Rest Well Cousin Hubert. Recognize that you were indeed one of the "Big Cousins" that we looked up to and respected. Always exhibiting a positive nod. Although we were separated by some 800 miles and later only 200, it was always good to catch up. There were never a lot of words exchanged, but a look, a smile, a dap, it was all good. As I borrow lyrics from Ruthie Foster's song...." came a-knockin' on my cousin's door, Singin' "Come on, cousin, ain't ya ready to go?" And my cousin stooped down, buckled up his shoes, And he moved on down by the Jordan stream. And then he'd shout, "Hallelujah! Done, done my duty! Got on my travelin' shoes".

Leroy Battle, Jr - June 29, 2023 at 01:14 AM

TJ

“ Rest in peace to my big cousin! I wish that we could have spent more time together. Yet every time that I seen you. We had at least a half an hour conversation. No matter where it was that we seen each other. Before we parted company we made it emphatically known by saying " I love you cuz". I can be in a helicopter in a Ariel view. I will be able to point you out with your distinguish walk. (Just like Uncle James). You have transitioned into the ancestral realm. You will be truly missed! Tell Aunt Mary, Uncle James, cousin Gregory, my mother and father that we're going to be just fine, and that we love them and miss them!

Tony L James - June 27, 2023 at 04:50 PM

JB

“ James H. Bell, Jr., my nephew, also known as James Hubert, originally from Valdosta, Georgia, journeyed to New Jersey in the early sixties with his father, James Sr, mother, Mary, and two brothers: Gregory and Derrick to seek economic freedom (so to speak). Many benefited from their journey and their sacrifices made by giving hands up to so many, not only family, but friends as well. Thank God for James, who in many instances personally gave up his comforts to ensure shelter to others in times of storms. To Deisha, Keith, and James's grandchildren, know this: God hears every unspoken word, sees every unseen wound, and mends every unbearable pain. Have faith and be strong. Revelations 22-14: Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life and may enter in through the gates into the City. Joseph Bell

Joseph Bell - June 26, 2023 at 02:23 PM