“ So Sad to hear of Jim's passing. I worked with Jim at Sears for about 4 years. He was one of the most honest people I ever met. He was a rock on the outside, but he was a softy on the inside. I loved the time we spent together. I have so many stories how he made us all laugh until it hurt. He loved to prank us and we pranked him. I missed him over the years, but I always thought about him. I was a teenager when I knew him and Jim make an impact in my life. He was someone I will cherish. I am so sorry for your loss. God Bless! ~ Michael Wedderman
