“ Our deepest condolences to Mother Dillard and family. Sad to hear of the sudden passing of Deacon Dillard. He was a very kind person and very faithful to his family and the F.P.C.A. family. Amen. I am so very glad to have known him, down through the many years. Prayers of grace and peace, will sustain you all. As you all reflect on many memories of his humor and his love, truly hope~your hearts will be contented. Praise the Lord. Sincerely, Foy Family of Somerset, N.J.

“ Rest in peace uncle. Thank you for all of the laughter and sound life advice. Visiting with you and the New Jersey crew was something I always enjoyed. Tell my mom, uncle Lionel, and all that I said hello and I can't wait to see you again someday. Family, be encouraged.

Sincerely,
J. Collins

“ With my deepest sympathy, the entire Dillard family are in my thoughts and prayers. Although I never had the opportunity to meet Mr. Dillard, I personally know one of his daughters and she is truly a reflection of the Christ like life that he lived. She shared with me such fond memories of him and I know he is resting easy in the arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
