“ Dr. Harris was one of my professors in Addictions Counseling at Camden County College. “Doc” was an awesome instructor, and I a proud to call him friend. I’m glad he was able to make the trip to Dallas to tour the Cowboys stadium. He had such a good time, and was excited to share his experience.
My heartfelt condolences to his family and friends. May you find comfort in the fact that Doc is no longer in pain. May it ease your loss by knowing he is reunited with his wife.
