“ To the Kargbo Family:

May the peace of God be you. I am still numb from the news and will keep your entire family and community in prayer. My favorite memory of James is his laughter and the way he protected his younger classmates while a student in my class at Conerly Road. He was a leader and a great story teller of his young life in Sierra Leone. We were a classroom family, and those years will always remain precious to me in memory of our dear beloved James Kargbo, Jr..

All the teachers Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Edwards and Miss Ellis all send their deepest sympathies.

*Respectfully submitted,
Dr. Gayle Nelson (Jame's teacher from Conerly Road School).*
