

James Clay Tobin

March 31, 1934 - November 3, 2020

James Clay Tobin departed this life on Tuesday, November 3, 2020 at home surrounded by loved ones. He was born in Orangeburg, South Carolina on March 31, 1934 to the late Mossy Williams and Cora Lee Tobin. James was educated in Branchville, South Carolina. After High School, James enlisted in the United States Army. After an honorable discharge from the Army, James moved to New Jersey, where he resided for the remainder of his life.

James was employed with Congoleum Corporation. In 1999, after 45 years, he retired. He served as a Deacon at several Baptist Churches and a Steward in the AME Church. He held several titles in both denominations for many years. He loved to teach Sunday school, Bible Study and loved to study the Word of God. In his spare time he enjoyed fishing and playing checkers.

In addition to his parents, James was predeceased by his wife, Annie V. Tobin; two daughters, Barbara Ann and Brenda Joyce Tarver; two sons, Willie Tarver and Eugene Tobin; and a special grandson, Steven Tarver.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his children, Annette Tarver, Rosemary Tarver, Rev Maurice J. Tobin, Cora Legette, James & Louis McLeod, and Tonette Geddes; and a host of loving grandchildren, great grandchildren, great, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Everyone must wear a mask/face covering!

“ You will be missed Uncle James and always loved Charles and Sharon Tobin

Charles H Tobin - November 10, 2020 at 10:29 PM

“ Uncle James: You were dearly loved by your family here in Colorado. Sorry, you never got to visit us out here, but I did get a chance to talk with you a couple of days before your death. You were the last of grandma Cora Lee's children. Rest in peace.

*Love,
Marion Tobin and family*
