

Jamil Maurice Dukes

September 19, 1986 - October 21, 2021

Jamil Maurice Dukes, affectionately known as Keko, was born in Trenton, NJ, on September 19, 1986. He departed this life on Thursday, October 21, 2021, at Capital Health System at Fuld. Jamil was educated in the Trenton Public School System. He was a former employee of the Wakefern Corporation. Jamil had a smile that could light up a room. He loved his family, foreign cars, and riding ATV's with his Banshee crew and the 609 Wild Boyz. He stayed dressed with a fresh pair of sneakers and took pride in his dreads. Jamil touched the lives of many people. He had a passion for rap music and recorded many songs with Mogul Monopoly Production. Jamil created his own clothing line N.U.E.

Jamil was predeceased by his father, Bryan K. Newsome, Sr., maternal grandmother, Mary F. Dukes, maternal grandfather, Aaron Mayfield, and niece Akia Dukes.

Jamil leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Sharon M. Johnson of Trenton, NJ; son, Nadir Johnson of Paterson, NJ; daughter, Briella M. Dukes of Trenton, NJ; paternal grandparents, Harry and Eunice Newsome of Trenton, NJ; brother, Bryan K. Newsome, Jr. and sister, Courtney N. Dukes, both of Trenton; five aunts, Benita Y. Woods, Paulette W. Taylor (Howard), Deborah A. Woods, Lisha D. Woods, all of Trenton, NJ and Anita Cook of Chesapeake, VA; one uncle, Ricky Wilkins of Atlanta, GA three nephews, Aki Taylor, Jr., Zamir McNair and Jahkai Newsome, all of Trenton, NJ; a special cousin, Jamal Styles of Trenton, NJ; a special friend George Platt, who he affectionately called Pops, and a host of cousins and friends.
