“ I never forget the day Jason walked into McDonald's carrying a bunch of birthday balloons for his sister looking for a job! I told the manager not to hire him. A couple weeks later I walk into McDonalds to start my shift and there was Jason. Our 32 years of Friendship started! Jason I believe our true friendship was just starting! We were talking off and on about the past what we did to each other that hurt us.... You will be truly missed by Wisdom and I. Wisdom just started reaching out to you! I was so happy and I knew you would be to!

A much appreciated memory. Thank you for sharing. Yeah he was special and even got me a job up there. Lol. He needed a job because he spent his last money on those balloons for me. Lol.

I met Jason through Wendy and Teresa in New Jersey and then we moved to Virginia and Jason would come and visit and 10 years later we moved to Florida and Jason would come and visit and he would come in the kitchen where I was, I was making a pomegranate upside down cake and he said he loved that and every time Jason would come he would say Junie what you making I knew what he wanted and one day he told me I can eat that whole cake so I fixed one every time he came and Jason share some of the pineapple upside down cake up there because I know that is where you are, Love you Jason. To Jason's family: God will never leave you. He knows how it feels to have a broken heart. He knows how much you need comfort and healing. But he won't hurry or ask you to feel better until you're ready. He promises to be by your side, comforting you always. Your loving family in Florida, Teresa & family

I'm truly sadden by the list of my dear friend. We had been out of touch as Jason was Jason (smile) However, I will never forget our UMDNJ (University of Medicine and Dentistry) days. He worked in A/P and I was in Purchasing. Going for breakfast bagel shop or Jersey subs lunch. I remember letting him use my car to take his nephew Eli for road test. (lol) He was not taking it in his BMW truck. We was full of laughs in High School too him, my cousin Feleshia, and I. This the part where I now have to live with shoulda woulda coulda I'm heartbroken
