“ My Deepest Condolences To The "White" Family and Friends

Wishing I could be there to Embrace All Family Members in this Day Of Sadness and Celebration of Life to Come. In A Better Place He Is.

Everything is about to be Renewed. Do Understand Our Father God is Reaching For His Soldiers. Trust "Rome" Will be Running Things for Real. That's Who He's Always Been. Stay Strong Family, He's Good.

To My Exceptional Childhood Friend

Romy Rome, I wish we could have talked just one more time to truly share and laugh about the stupidest things we did and how much fun we had Doing it. Our lives took us in different directions, opposite sides of the world and lost touch. But Throughout time you've stayed in my head and heart. For we sat through entire nights of conversation when you lived with me. Trying to figure out How and Why. Realized that was a waste of time. So next up was When? Um we quickly agreed that was way above our pay grade. We together came up with let's pick a path into the unknown, sink or swim is all we had. Then we jumped into the car next day and drove to Ohio State University. Found Felix and this fool suppose to be there taking names and he came around the corner on some crutches. Boi looka here we was no good. Then we going back to Jersey and ran out of Gas. I thought you had lute you thought I had lute and we was both broke, pockets empty Cuz. We had to "Phone Home" to get home. Crazy and fun. Then you got that Anniversary Z. We was all over the place, took you 2 weeks to figure out the car had Body Sonic all the speakers in the seats. What great times, I could write about us forever. Seriously Though, Need you to know I've carried this in my Heart, Mind, and Soul for 47 years. So before all this comes to a close in a few days. I want and Need you to Know, I Never Ever Forgave Myself for Running You into the Bumper of My Van Playing Touch Football and Sliced open your knee that day..I stopped the bleeding patched up the wound and drove you to the Hospital. Worst day of Both our Lives. I Totally Shattered Your Dreams of Going Pro. I knew you'd make it doing what you Loved. Playing Football. Neither one of us ever came back from that and it Destroyed so much. Forgive Me it was an accident which you already knew. Still didn't stop me from feeling responsible. So Romy Rome any Pain and suffering you've been enduring Medically, Physically, Emotionally. I have asked Jesus Christ to embrace you throughout your Flight to Our Father God. Whereas Your Physical Temporary Existence will Change as the Soul's Separation from the Physical Body and Ascending to a Transformed, Resurrected Existence to Soon Become Spiritual, Eternal, and Holy. The Place Where Our Father God Dwells. You'll Then Know Completion of Life Here has Been Achieved. Know There are Many Praying You Up To The safest place in this Universe to be. My understanding of Way is The same as what all Brothers and Fellows have Done Whom have Gone this way Before Us. Enjoy All the Beautiful Things Your Eyes Only Will See While in Flight. Having No ability to touch, taste, or smell, just Feel the Peace and Quiet. I hope you have the opportunity to reach the 5th Dimension. It's nothing like it.

Much Love Always!!! To: Mr. Jerome (Romy Rome) White" & Family

I'll See You On The Other Side.

My brother i have a heavy heart filled with memories of our childhood and college. He was in my opinion the greatest all around athlete to come out of Highland Park. He excelled in football, basketball and baseball. Loving heart and loved his family.
I love you bro we will meet again 🙏

“ What can I say about Jerome? Growing up around his family he was the kindest, loving person. He let you know that he cared in his own way. I will always remember you driving down South 7th in his sports car with his shades on. Just as cool as he wanted to be and was. Although his family and friends pray, he was still here with us he's not along, he's among family in heaven. He's home with his mother, brother, sisters and niece. He will truly be missed. ROMEY ROME!! I love you, my friend.

My heartfelt condolences to the White family. Amir, Jamir, Jackie, Allison, Laura you're all in my daily prayers.

We love you all!
