

Jerry Lee Hutchinson Jr.

January 22, 1975 - February 23, 2024

Jerry Lee Hutchinson, 49, of Sicklerville, NJ was born January 22, 1975, and passed away Thursday.

February 23, 2024 at home.

Jerry had various positions throughout his career, most recent was a work at home processor. Jerry was a proud and outgoing man who tried to live each day with purpose. Throughout his travels, many experiences shaped him into a mountain of creativity. At a young age, Jerry was influenced by the elements that surrounded him. He quickly realized the same elements that were created to stop his progression could be used to advance his movement. He found art in life as well as music. Jerry came up with “ The Voice of the Voice”, solely because of the catch and pitch theory. He would say, “I listen to what I hear, and make sure I hear what I am listening to, to then convey what I have heard using my voice.” “Through music, theater, and all dramatical productions, I use my gift of creativity in order to create a relationship between the viewer, listener, and myself”.

He is preceded in death by his mother Paula L Hutchinson & Father Jerry Lee Hutchinson.

Jerry is survived by two daughters Brianna & Daniah; Three sons Jamauri, Jeremiah & Dani’el; Sisters Sharanda & Adrienne; Brothers Donnie, Jason & Cedric; Aunts Karen & Sylvia, Uncles Zain, Troy & Noble; Nephews Elijah, Isaiah & Zaiyell; Nieces Azie, Ze’mani & Kamora. He also leaves behind a host of cousins Zain Jr., Tyrone, Shanika, Desiree, Phillip Jr, Jasmine, Troy,

Miles Morgan, Anika and more. As well as Extended family such as the Bailey/Jarvis family, The Bell Family & Friends Justin, Shawn, J-Rock and so many more
