“ I remember Sergeant First Class Joe Ingram from the time we served together in the 5th Squadron 117th Cavalry, New Jersey Army National Guard. SFC Ingram was one of my trusted leaders in the S4 (Logistics) Section. He was very disciplined and determined, but had a leadership style where he was always poised and calm, but deliberate. He always made sure the Soldiers were doing what they were supposed to be doing and showed up with needed supplies at the right place and time, but he never raised his voice. I have missed seeing him since his retirement from the Army, but I will keep his memory eternally. I know that he has already made sure that the Gates of Heaven have everything organized and running smoothly. Show 'em The Way! My prayers are with SFC Ingram, and his family, that he may be resting in eternal life.
