

John Wesley Presley

July 10, 1933 - March 7, 2019

John W. Presley was born July 10, 1933 in Pavo, Georgia to the late John Wesley, Sr and Wessie Mae Presley. He departed this life on March 7, 2019.

John affectionately known as “Munk” and later “Pop” to his sisters was very loving and kind. He had a smile that would light up a room, especially when his nieces and nephews were around.

“Pop” was fortunate enough to assist one of the teachers at school, becoming the milk monitor passing out milk to the students, a task he thoroughly enjoyed! Playing checkers was his passion and he was very good at it and seemed to always win!

When he was eighteen years old his family moved to New Jersey, eventually settling in Piscataway. They became members of the Zion Hill Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend McMillian and Reverend J.T. Meadows.

He enjoyed going to church and he loved the Lord. His favorite songs, that he loved to sing were “Let Jesus Fix It for You”, This Little Light of Mine and “Come to Jesus”.

In 1966 when his mother passed John went to live with his sister Juanita. She was devoted and took good care of him.

In addition to his parents, John was predeceased by two sisters; Janie Ruth Robinson, Martha Williams, and one brother Lawrence Presley.

He leaves to cherish his memory; sisters Juanita Bell, Emma Richardson, Josephine Mason, Geraldine Allen, Mary Allen (Leroy), and a host of nieces, nephews, and relatives.
