

Joseph Bradley

March 12, 1960 - July 29, 2020

Joseph Bradley departed this life on Wednesday, July 29, 2020.

Joe was born on March 12, 1960 in New Brunswick, New Jersey. He attended school in Piscataway, New Jersey for most of his early years and later moved to Lawrenceville, New Jersey. He graduated from Lawrenceville High School in 1978. Joe continued his education at DeVry University in North Brunswick, NJ and Apex Technical School in New York City, where he attained his license and certification as a Refrigeration Technician. Joe was also experienced in all aspects of warehouse operations.

Joe had a fun personality, he loved hearing and sharing a good joke. He loved to laugh, and loved to cook. Joe was a creative and skilled cook. His specialty was fried fish and he was often requested to fry fish for fundraising events, cookouts and special occasions. If you love fried fish and wanted it to be “just right”, Joe was the person to call! Joe was well loved and had an adventurous spirit. He formerly lived in Greenville, NC, Phoenix, Arizona and Albuquerque, NM. Joe will be missed.

He was predeceased by his sister, Cheryl Randolph and leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Marianne Ransom of Edison, NJ, father, Edward Bradley of Greenville, NC, brother, Edward “Butch” Bradley, Jr. of New Brunswick, son, Joseph R. Bradley of Fayetteville, GA, three daughters, Lauren Rodriguez of Fayetteville, GA, Jasmin Jackson of Brewton, AL and Portia Bradley of Westville, NJ, three grandsons, Terrell Bradley, Xavier and Cameron Rodriguez of Fayetteville, GA and one granddaughter, Olivia Bradley of Fayetteville, GA,

Godmother, Barbara Morris and his best friend, Calvin Laughlin of Piscataway, NJ.
