“ I've known Jay Burroughs for many years since he became a member of North Stelton African Methodist Episcopal Church (NSAME). Under the leadership of our former Pastor, Rev. Dr. Kenneth L. Saunders, Sr. we served together as officers in the North Stelton Economic Development Corporation (NSEDCC) at 6 Ethel Road in Piscataway. Jay was the Treasurer. He was knowledgeable, professional, and pleasant to work with. Jay had a very easy-going personality, and was always a gentleman.

Jay was a faithful member of NSAME, actively involved in the Men's Fellowship, singing in the male chorus, and working faithfully around the church as a Trustee.

I also knew Jay to be a loving and supportive husband to his wife Ruth in her work at NSAME and in the H.E.A.L. Ministry before her untimely passing.

Jay had a jovial side. Most recently, I would often run into him at the Piscataway ShopRite and WalMart. He would always stop and talk and make jokes, especially when he was with his very good friend Henry Brooks. Jay always had a smile and a friendly demeanor.

I was shocked and very sad upon hearing of Jay's passing. The first thing I thought about was the last time I saw him in WalMart and how we spent time catching up and laughing at Jay's jokes. I will miss him. May he rest peacefully in the arms of Jesus, and may God bless his family with peace and comfort.

“Bro. Jay was committed to attending Bible Study at North Stelton AME Church. I enjoyed hearing his understanding of very deep topics. It was an honor and a joy to be the facilitator of that Bible Study class. Bro. Jay will be greatly missed. Sincerely, Bro. Coach Terrell
