

Kathleen Cuffy

October 7, 1954 - July 20, 2024

Kathleen Cuffy was born on October 7, 1954, in Trinidad and Tobago. She was a resident of Princeton, NJ for over 30 years. Kathleen accepted her angel invitation and transitioned on July 20, 2024, at Penn Medicine Princeton Medical Center.

Kathleen was an amazing mother, sister, friend, and neighbor. With a strong love of her faith in Christ, Kathleen enjoyed reading her Bible and worshipping the Lord. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Lincoln Gardens in Somerset, NJ.

Kathleen got her greatest joy by helping others. She was a caregiver to many and had a hand in raising each and every one of her nieces and nephews. She was full of life with a sharp and witty tongue. She loved to sing and dance and was easily appointed the best cook in her family.

Kathleen had a love for the beauty of nature all around her. Her phone is full of pictures of sunrises, sunsets, clouds, snowfall, rain, and foggy sceneries. She also had a love for flowers and plants. Most of all, Kathleen loved spending quality time with her family, especially her godchildren Laila, Zoey, Zion, and great-niece Ava. Her role as a mother went beyond her daughter and her kind heart touched everyone she encountered.

Kathleen is survived by her daughter, Kimberly Borris; siblings, Leila

(Lansing), Corinne (Carl), Roslyn (late Steve), Delia, Hiliva, Erica, Arthur and Raymond (Karen). She was a loving aunt to 17 nieces and nephews and a great aunt to 18 great nieces and great nephews. She was greatly loved by her extended family, the Resnicks. Kathleen was predeceased by her parents, Evelyn and Clement Cuffy, and her two younger brothers, Eric and David.

Kathleen will be greatly missed but will continue to live in our hearts forever.

“ Will always remember Kathleen for the beautiful cornrow hairstyles she used to style my and Althea's hair in as teenagers. Will never forget her hot mouth, a quick retort, whenever she felt it was needed. And especially my late brother, Steve, her brother in law sharing with me before he died, how much he admired her spirit during his final conversations with her. RIP Kathleen
