“ My daughter took her first steps with Clay. Her was persistent in telling us she will walk as he took her hand up and down poolside. Eventually he let go and the walking did not stop. This was "Clay" always with the can do attitude and never gave up! He always showed up for everything and he was like a brother to us. Today we celebrate you and the joy you brought to us and everyone you came in touch with. Rest easy my brother.

When I first moved to New Jersey Clay and Ketra opened their home and welcomed me there and they never treated me any different the love they showed me was overwhelming and to this day I am forever grateful. Clay is my brother and no matter what we had going on he was always right there in the middle causing trouble as usual. Clay you're gone but never will be forgotten...loving you always...bye my brother
