

Kyasha Nicole Hill

July 12, 1995 - June 17, 2021

Kyasha Nicole “Kezzy” Hill, was born July 12, 1995, to Buly Camara and Bridget Hill at St. Peter’s Medical Center, New Brunswick, New Jersey. Kyasha was called home Thursday, June 17, 2021 at UMDNJ University Hospital in Newark, New Jersey.

Kyasha moved to Raleigh, North Carolina and attended elementary school. She was an A and B student. During her elementary school days, she became a member of Glory to God Ministries. During her middle school years, she relocated back to New Jersey. Kyasha joined The Divas & Gents Step Team as a drummer. She loved her music. While attending New Brunswick High she played basketball. Kyasha transferred to Franklin High School and was a member of the graduating Class of 2015.

Kyasha moved to East Orange, New Jersey and was hired as an employee of Allied Universal, as a Security Officer. She loved her job. Kyasha had a soft spot in her heart for the seniors at her job.

Kyasha loved spending time with baby girl Ky’myia Nelson and her big sister, Deneatra Hill, cousins and her best friend, Jessica Green.

Kyasha’s first love was music and shopping came in a close second. She didn’t play about her Jordans and her clothes. She would always say, “It ain’t easy being Kezzy". Everyday Kyasha made it her business to video chat with family, to talk or just to check in and say I Love You. She loved her nieces and nephews. She loved to laugh and make jokes. Kyasha was a hard and reliable worker that you could always depend on. A great sister, friend and would be there for anyone who needed a helping hand.

Kyasha was preceded in death by her grandparents, Paul & Joan Hill. Four aunts, Karen Hill, Lyrette Harris, Renee Handy and Joan Gilliam; One uncle, Kareem Turner.

Kyasha leaves to mourn her passing, her mother, Bridget Hill, her dad, Noah Mosley Jr. Four sisters, Arnaiza Hill and Sitarrah Hunt of Georgia; Daneatra Hill of New Brunswick, NJ; Nyashia Daniels, Piscataway, NJ.
