

Elder Leroy Francis Jackson Sr.

September 16, 1941 - October 28, 2016

Leroy Francis Jackson, Sr. was born September 16, 1941 to Wallace Jackson and Clara Johnson-Jackson. He went home to be with his Heavenly Father on Thursday, October 28, 2016, at St. Frances Hospital, Wilmington, Delaware at the age of 75 years old. Leroy is pre-deceased by his sisters Louise Salters and Sarah Thompson, three brothers; James Green, Allen Jackson, and Alphonso Jackson.

Butch Jackson as he was known, was born and raised with his siblings in Princeton, NJ and was educated in the Princeton school system. He was a certified Blue Seal Boiler Engine, and completed Certification for HVAC from Mercer County Community College, West Windsor, NJ.

Leroy is survived by the love of his Life (after God) Sandra E. Jackson who he was married to for 54 years. They gave life to four children, Leroy F. Jackson, Jr. (Beverly), Rodney H. Jackson (Elaine), Lisa Jackson, Charlene Walker (Charles), 13 Grandchildren & 9 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by three sisters Martha Voorhees of Phoenix, AZ, Evelyn Priutis (Percy) of Easton, PA, Ethel Edwards (Jimmy) of Atlanta, GA, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Leroy worked as a Boiler Engineer for Sterling Drugs Pharmaceuticals (Bayer Aspirin) for 24 years, and Carter Wallace, Inc. (Young's Rubber) for 5 years becoming a dislocated worker. Leroy was a Jack of all Trades and blessed with the gift of works and service to man. He was very giving and often did without to help others. He was the man to call if you had a plumbing or heating emergency.

Uncle Butch enjoyed spending time with family and friends. To relax he would go fishing with family and friends. He also enjoyed playing spades and big whisk.

Elder Jackson loved the Lord and was truly a fisher of men. Every word from his mouth was preaching and teaching the Word of Life. If you responded back when he said Elder was in Fellowship with many Ministries in the Trenton and Delaware areas. He was a member of True Tabernacle Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ, Inc., in Wilmington, DE where he was ordained an Elder under Bishop Owens.
