

Leslie Carlisle Jr.

October 28, 1957 - October 9, 2021

Leslie “Butchie” Carlisle Jr, 63, of New Brunswick NJ, passed away on October 09, 2021, after a brief illness. Butchie was born in New Brunswick, October 28, 1957, and was the son of the late Leslie and Sally Carlisle Sr. His absence leaves a huge hole in the hearts of all who were entertained by his hilarious stories, sense of humor and natural born leadership.

Butchie was a gifted artist, graduating from New Brunswick Vo₁ tech in 1977 with a diploma in drafting. He landed his first full-time job at Dec Furniture driving trucks to take care of his growing family. He would later, work for Harry Strauss & Sons, as a Truck Driver/Manager/Union Representative. After a few years he went on to work for Shift and Goldman as a food delivery driver and in 1999, Leslie left to work for Johnson & Johnson, as a Utility operator/Union Representative, until the plant closed.

Leslie used that time of uncertainty as opportunity to accomplish one of his lifelong goals, solidifying his motto, “Just keep it movin”, he enrolled in Everest College, graduating in 2007 with a degree in Criminal Justice. He re-entered the workforce, at Bristol- Myer Squibb as a Hazardous Material Handler, until he retired. Throughout his life he formed many successful relationships, making a lasting impact on everyone he worked with.

He loved sports throughout his whole life and spent many years playing at local parks with neighborhood friends. He was the only kid that could play baseball, football and basketball play while holding his baseball cap in one hand. Although Butchie was a lifelong Cowboys fan, he enjoyed every aspect of the game from college to pro. The weekend phone calls about the games of the day, with family and friends will truly be missed.

Leslie was preceded in death by his parents and two siblings, Brian Carlisle, and Cheryl Carlisle.

He is survived by two daughters, Chironda Branham, of North Brunswick, NJ, and Ebony Irizarry (Kelvin) of Winder, Georgia; one sister Alice "Cookie" Farmer (Fred Sr) of Runnymede, NJ; three brothers Paul Carlisle, and Derwin Booker of New Brunswick, NJ, Barry Miller (Kai) of Las Vegas, NV; two grandsons/his beloved "little buddies" Lucas and Dante Irizarry, who will miss their "Pop-Pop" tremendously; two nephews Freddie Farmer Jr and Georgie Farmer (Jamie); two nieces, Cashor Farmer and Ola Hart (Martin); and several great nieces and nephews, relatives, and friends

Sorrowfully submitted,

The Family
