“ Who would have known that our last conversation would be just that, our last conversation the night before you took flight with no warning. I miss you my dear friend and life is not the same without your physical presence. I miss our daily chats sometimes lasting for hours on hours. I miss our spiritual talks, our shopping chats and of course our planning event chats. Thank you for being my Sista/friend Linda as few real folks don't come our way, I truly believe in my heart that our friendship was a beacon of fresh air for the both of us and your untimely departure has left a empty void in many. I love you my dearest bestie but God loved you best. Take your rest beautiful and one day we shall meet again. I love You My Dear Linda J. Smith💔💔
